Chicago Packers and Strikers Settle Down
for a Long, Hard Battle for Supremacy.

STRIKE BREAKERS COMING NOW

Packers Will Import Laborers and Then Protect Them by Heavy Police Guards--Suffering Among the Strikers' Families.

(Special by Scripps-McLain.)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—The strike has settled down to one of lasting endurance. This is no question but the plants are working fifty per cent of their capacity, still the strikers claim a victory is in sight. There is no rioting of any kind at the yards this morning, although four trains of strike-breakers arrived and were taken to the different plants under an escort of police. One train load was from the east and is said to contain skilled workmen. The packers claim they have all the unskilled help now required.

After Food
Large crowds gathered at the union commissary this morning to receive their daily supplies. Many grafters and those not in good standing in the union were turned away. The reports of stock this morning was normal for a Tuesday.

Cattle Men
Cattlemen in session in Denver tomorrow will undertake to bring about a conference, which it is hoped will settle the packing house strike. The stock men of the west are losing heavily by the strike.

Yesterday's Market
Monday was the proverbial blue Monday. Following an excessive run in cattle at 125,000 yesterday, the market went to pieces, and cattle growers and shippers were hit hard. The claims of the packers at the close of last week that they were in a position to handle their normal business was held responsible for the large run.

Salesmen were at the mercy of the buyers, who hammered down the market, and cattle went from 50 to 60 cents lower than a week ago, while over half the stock in the yards remained unsold at the close of the day. Heavy shipments are said to be on the way here, and conditions may be such by the middle of the week that shippers will be glad to sell at almost any price to save feeding stock left over.

Traders declared yesterday that there was enough stock in the yards now to last the remainder of this week without the arrival of another hoof. Despite the claims of the packers that they could handle receipts, the market yesterday proved how seriously the strike is hampering the big firms.

Unable to Handle Receipts.
The receipts of live stock yesterday were: Cattle, 25,000; hogs, 30,000; and sheep, 17,000. It was the first day since the strike began that the receipts were anything like normal, and the packers were unable to handle over one-third of the business.

Cattle intended for canning purposes were unsaleable at any price. Hogs sold from 15 to 30 cents lower, and many remained unsold.

The strikers were jubilant at the turn affairs had taken, which the claim was in their favor. The break in the ranks of the strikers, which the packers had predicted, failed to materialize, as only 359 former employees returned to work, according to the statement of the employers. This number, they admitted, was composed mostly of unskilled Polish laborers.

Strikers Are Hopeful.
Homer D. Call of the butcher workmen said that from reports he had received there was not a single desertion among the skilled workmen, and he said that a few laborers returned to work, but that the packers claim to have something like 11,000 men at work in the yards, over one-half of whom are housed and fed there.

The strike leaders intend to appeal to the city building inspector to enforce the ordinances pertaining to fire escapes and the regulations which apply to tenement houses. Hundreds of negroes are housed in one building, the bunks being in tiers of four high, and the building and sanitary inspectors are to be asked to investigate if the air space is equal to the requirements under the city ordinances.

It is suspected of the death of Loomis he is thought to be able to shed some light on the question which will point to the facts as how Loomis lost his life. Ellis was at one time a lawyer in New York.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 2.—A strike of six hundred telegraphers covering the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway system is complete today and the railroad is badly tied up. Strong efforts are being made to fill the strikers' places. The men demand a minimum of sixty per month. They claim they have a fund of four hundred thousand dollars to maintain the strike.

Who is Ellis
The Ellis referred to in the above dispatch was a companion of E. Kent Loomis, the brother of the assistant secretary of state, who was entrusted with valuable documents for King Menelik, but who mysteriously disappeared from the Kaiser Wilhelm while in Plymouth harbor and whose body was afterwards found on the beach near Plymouth with strange wounds in the head. turning did not change the situation at all.

"We consider our position as strong as it has been any day since the strike began," said Call. "The condition of the cattle market proves that the packers cannot handle a normal run of stock. If the claims made by the packers were correct, the receipts of the stock Monday would not have demoralized the market. We can afford to wait until they come to us."

Against the claims of the strike leaders the packers said the day had been favorable to them. One of them said he considered the strike settled, and that the reason for the packers buying so sparingly was because there was little demand for meat, and not because they were not in a position to do business.

Statement Goes Unchallenged.
The packers refused to make any reply to the statement issued by the strike leaders. One of them said that the only point in the statement which might require an answer was the claim that the average hours of labor did not exceed thirty-five a week.

"The condition is the fault of the strikers themselves, and not of the packers," said Edward Elden. "On several occasions we have offered to change that condition so that the force would be reduced and the men whom we kept given steady employment. Every time it was suggested the officers of the union objected, and declared they wanted the work divided equally among the men."

Abandon-Wagon Service.
"Since the strike, when we were discussing the reinstatement of the men, and told the committee that we could not employ all of the strikers at once, William Stirling said the cattle butchers would return in a body if there was but one hour's work for them, or they would not return at all. I cannot see, therefore, why we are to blame for the short hours the men complain of."

There was little change in the conditions around the yards Monday. The packers did not try to send out any of their teams—in fact, they intimated that they might not do so again even were the strike settled. A representative of Swift & Co. said that the firm was reaching all of its branch houses by rail except South Water street and the Fulton market, and that it was not trying to supply either of those places at this time.

Steps Taken to Sue Employers.
A number of additional men were brought into the yards, while a few were reported to have deserted. The working conditions were not materially changed.

The labor men have prepared to bring suit against the packers for violation of the city ordinances regarding the feeding and housing of men in the packing houses. The packers claim to have something like 11,000 men at work in the yards, over one-half of whom are housed and fed there.

The strike leaders intend to appeal to the city building inspector to enforce the ordinances pertaining to fire escapes and the regulations which apply to tenement houses. Hundreds of negroes are housed in one building, the bunks being in tiers of four high, and the building and sanitary inspectors are to be asked to investigate if the air space is equal to the requirements under the city ordinances.

It is suspected of the death of Loomis he is thought to be able to shed some light on the question which will point to the facts as how Loomis lost his life. Ellis was at one time a lawyer in New York.

BOZZIE TALKED OF IN ENGLAND

AN ENGLISH MAGAZINE DEVOTES MUCH SPACE TO THE DOG.

HAS VISITED JANESVILLE

Her Owner, Mr. Clason, Is an Intimate Friend of H. D. McKinney, of This City.

Under the caption "Wonders of the World," the London Strand publishes an account of "Bozzie the Second," the most intelligent dog in the world. It publishes photographs of Bozzie and of her master, Mr. G. H. Clason of Chicago. Mr. Clason is a friend of H. D. McKinney of this city and has brought Bozzie the First and Bozzie the Second with him on many of his visits to Janesville. In speaking of the famous dog the Strand says: "Bozzie the Second is an almost marvellous animal. She is owned by Mr. George H. Clason of Chicago, Ill., U. S. A., and is a truly wonderful dog, possessing phenomenal powers. She can count, solve mental problems in addition, multiplication and subtraction, can tell time to the very minute, spell words, perform marvellous feats of mind, reading and do good detective work. The wonderful achievement of Bozzie have attracted the attention of physiologists all over the world and a number of these scientists will shortly gather at Chicago university to make a thorough examination of the dog's mental powers.

Investigators interested in the problem of mental telepathy have visited Mr. Clason and tested Bozzie's powers, finding she could receive mental messages much more accurately and with greater certainty than any human being claiming to possess the same power.

"If several visitors call on Mr. Clason he will, after introducing the dog, inquire, 'How many calls have we, Bozzie?' The dog will give a hasty glance around the room and designate the number by short, sharp barks. It must be clearly understood that Bozzie does not work by the signal system. Mr. Clason does not communicate with the dog in any way.

"After Bozzie has counted the number of visitors, one of her simplest feats, Mr. Clason usually requests someone to give the dog an arithmetic problem. At a recent exhibition someone asked Bozzie the result of three minus one plus two. After a moment's pause the dog barked four times. The letters of the alphabet, printed on separate cards, were then brought out, and Bozzie was asked to spell her name, which she did correctly. She then spelled a number of two-syllable words, only making an occasional mistake. Someone remarked that the dog could not possibly know how to form the words and that her master must assist her in some way.

"Mr. Clason was prepared for this; he told the sceptic to test the dog's powers with as many words as he wished, and left the room. Bozzie looked thoughtfully after her master for an instant and then turned once again to business. Word after word was put to her until all doubt of her capability was banished.

"Mr. Clason then returned and electrified the visitors. 'Now Bozzie will show what an excellent mind-reader she is. Bozzie, tell the gentlemen what they thought we were a few minutes ago.'

"Bozzie immediately walked over to the letters and spelled the word 'friends,' which caused a hearty laugh. 'Now, Bozzie,' continued her master, 'I want you to do exactly as these gentlemen tell you.' He then told the visitors to write a number on a piece of paper, at the same time keeping their mind on the figure, and then to ask Bozzie what it was.

"The first man wrote the figure eight. The dog walked up to him and barked a correct number of times. The next man wrote five. Bozzie meditated a minute and then barked four. 'Wrong,' exclaimed those who saw the figure. 'No,' remarked the man who was putting the test, 'the dog is right. I thought I would fool her, so I wrote five and thought of four.'

"A number of like tests were made, and the dog responded quickly to unspoken questions. Mr. Clason wrote on a piece of paper: 'Mentally tell Bozzie to bring up this morning's paper,' and passed the slip to a visitor. The man looked at the dog a few minutes and mentally made the demand. Bozzie wagged her tail knowingly and soon returned with the morning's paper.

"This disclosed a power in the dog the claim for which seemed preposterous. A mind-reading dog! Absurd! 'But Bozzie is really and truly a mind-reader. A little fellow who had noticed the dog's performance in unappointed amazement asked to be allowed to try something. The collector's master invited the little fellow to place his hand on Bozzie's head and think of his age. Nobody but the boy knew his age, or more correctly speaking, nobody but the boy and the dog, for Bozzie gave ten quick barks and the boy admitted that the dog had told his age correctly.'

"This ends the Strand's story of Bozzie, but it can be honestly stated that Bozzie has even done as much, if not more, right in the parlors of the Myers house in Janesville.

TWINE MILL BEGAN WORK THIS MORNING

Half of the Carding Machines at Cotton Mills Have Already Been Replaced.

At the Rock River Cotton Co.'s plant this morning the wheels of the twine mill which have not moved since the fire of July 4, were once more set in motion, and that portion of the factory is again working full capacity. Two of the four rows of carding machines which were so badly damaged by the flames have been replaced and it is expected that the hatching factory will again be running within three weeks. The interior of the building has been whitewashed and all evidences of the disastrous blaze obliterated.

TOBACCO BUSINESS QUIET AT PRESENT

Sales of Old Goods Have Been Completed—Rain Helps New Crop.

The buying season is pretty well at an end. A few small transactions in the 1902 crop are put through from time to time, but most of the packers have finished handling the crop and the majority of the warehouses are shut down. Some sales of low grades are noted, but the prices do not rise much above those paid for stemming stock. The market is pretty well cleared of leaf. Indeed, it is said that the growers will carry over less of the 1902 crop than for many years. This is satisfactory, inasmuch as the new crop, of which a great deal is expected, will come on the market with a fair chance. The progress of the new crop gives complete satisfaction. The weather has been perfect and the growth is described as phenomenal. Shipments out of Edgerton for the week amounted to 500 cases, says the Edgerton Review.

New York. Complete stagnation prevails in the market, not a single sale having been reported during the week. Altogether the tobacco industry in this state is languishing as never before. In some counties where there used to be hundreds of acres of tobacco grown this year there will be less than twenty. The trouble is the old one—low prices which barely pay the cost of raising.

New England. A small quantity of the 1902 crop still remains unsold. No transactions of importance are reported, but a good many inquiries are heard, especially for medium and dark wrappers. The new crop is progressing nicely. Some damage was done by a storm that struck the Connecticut valley the other day, but fortunately the area was small. Otherwise conditions have been uniformly favorable. The best appearing crops are those that were set out at the beginning of May. The plants are vigorous and of a rich color. Among the later crops there is considerable uncertainty. A little damage from cut worms has been reported, but the only thing the farmers really fear is hail.

OUT IN COLD WORLD WITH LITTLE CHILD

Rather than be separated from her nine year old daughter who has lived with her at the county poor farm since infancy and whom the authorities had decided must be sent to some school to be educated, Mrs. Julia Swanson departed with her child from the county institution some two weeks ago and nothing has since been heard from the mother and the girl. She is known to have gone in the direction of Edgerton where she has a brother. Mrs. Swanson formerly resided in the town of Fulton and after the death of her husband nine years ago was obliged to have all her children, save a baby girl at that time only a few months old, turned over to the care of the state.

MANY VISITED NEW PARK ON THE OPENING NIGHT

Vaudeville Bill at the New Summer Theatre Proved a Good One.

Electric park and the new summer theatre at the foot of South Main street attracted a large crowd at the opening last evening. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated and nothing that might minister to the comfort and enjoyment of the visitors was overlooked. The vaudeville bill was well filled and liberal applause greeted the dancing Kemmler sisters, the vacarles of Orville Picher, the blackface comedian, and the illustrated songs of Karl Bonick. Prof. Lake's full orchestra furnished the music. No intoxicating liquors were sold on the grounds and nothing marred the enjoyment of the visitors.

Entertainment Yesterday For Mrs. Peckham of Marshalltown, Iowa.

Mrs. J. W. St. John entertained a number of ladies at her home on S. Jackson street last evening in honor of her guest, Mrs. L. Peckham of Marshalltown, Iowa. Six handed euchre was played and a dainty luncheon was served at the conclusion of the playing.

WONDERFUL WOMEN WITH THE CIRCUS

Barnum & Bailey Have an Aggregation of Refined and Ladylike Women This Year.

Those who have seen the Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth this season say that the big circus has an unusually large number of clever women among the three hundred or more performers. One of the cleverest, as well as one of the most attractive in face and figure is Miss Josephine Koubek. Miss Koubek is a Bavarian girl. Her specialty is high-school menage riding and driving and in this particular line she is said to be without a peer either in this country or Europe. Attired in a handsome riding habit, she presents a most attractive series of pictures on horseback. Her second specialty is a drawing a buggy with a single shaft that extends over his back and works on a swivel on the saddle. Trained dogs are cleverly introduced in this attractive display, and the act creates more than usual comment and interest.

On Easter Sunday Miss Koubek made a tremendous sensation by driving her flower-covered cart out Fifth avenue, New York, during the Easter parade.

Another clever rider is Miss Mafalda Von Korb, who is now visiting America for the first time. Miss Von Korb is an Austrian girl and is very highly connected among the leading families of Vienna. For family reasons she never appeared professionally in Europe, but was widely known as a clever amateur rider. The cleverness of her riding and the attractiveness of her appearance have made her a great favorite with American audiences.

The show has many other clever women who perform notable acts, especially among the acrobats. So far as the mid-air performances are concerned, there is a general agreement that they surpass in thrilling interest and magnitude anything hitherto seen in this country.

The Clarksons, who turn double and twisting somersaults, have made an especially strong impression. The entire circus company numbers 300 performers from all parts of the world. They appear in three rings, on two stages, in mid-air and upon a huge hippodrome track, and in connection with forty clowns, who are credited with actually being funny, they give a performance that was the talk of New York for five weeks and served to crowd the great canvas auditorium twice a day during the week in Brooklyn. The attractions of the big show do not end with the performance proper. There is a splendid spectacle, a comical display given in connection with a congress of strange and curious freaks from all parts of the world. The models of the fighting ships of the United States navy, of which so much has been said and printed, are also exhibited new and is declared to be gorgeous beyond anything ever attempted, even by this great show. It will be seen here next Thursday, August 4.

WILL BE ABLE TO MAIL IN BULK

Good Scheme is Being Advised by the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden is working out a plan for mailing circulars and other fourth class mail matter without stamps. When Mr. Madden has completed his arrangements and formulated the necessary rules it will be possible to put fourth class matter in the mails without affixing the usual 1 cent stamp to each piece. One restriction will be that not more than 2,000 identical pieces may be sent under this rule. It will also be necessary to pay the total amount of postage in cash before the bulk is received by the postoffice.

Instead of affixing a stamp to every circular, as is the custom at present, business houses will be allowed to send a man to the postmaster to state how many pieces he has to mail and the time and pay the cash postage. This will save clerical work in the business houses and work by the cancelling clerks at the postoffice. From the bulk the postmaster will take enough to weigh a pound as a basis of calculation. The whole amount will then be weighed and charged for accordingly.

This is a matter of great interest in Janesville as many of the manufacturing concerns mail a vast number of catalogues each year and the labor of affixing stamps is no small item. If the pieces can be mailed in bulk under the new rule it will be a distinct saving.

PROGRESS OF WORK PLEASED THE OWNER

Captain Davidson, of Bay City, Inspected His New Sugar Factory at Janesville Yesterday.

Capt. Davidson of Bay City, Mich., expressed himself as pleased with the progress of the work on his best sugar factory here during a visit in the city yesterday. He carefully inspected the entire structure as it now stands and was delighted with many alterations and improvements on the original structure at Dresden, Canada, which are being made. The outlook for the harvest is excellent and there is every reason to expect that the big force of 250 men will have the factory ready for business by October 30.

RAIN HELPED IN MANY LOCALITIES

FARMS SEEM TO BE DOING MUCH BETTER.

Oats, Barley and Rye Are All in—Potatoes Promise Well—Pastures Are Still Dead.

CORN IS PROGRESSING WELL

Added by the rains of Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning, stock country crops again give promise of a bumper year. The oats are all harvested now and in many cases the threshing has begun. Barley and rye are in and are both fairly good crops. The oats, however, are not up to standard and while better than last year's crop cannot be called crops that the county would be proud of in usual years. Corn is coming along fast. Planted three weeks later than usual it is now only about a week behind this time last year. The rain has helped develop it wonderfully and the weather itself has been ideal corn weather. It will not be a full crop, however but much better than was expected. In some fields it is tasseling out already.

Other Crops. Late potatoes are doing nicely and we should have a large crop this year. Before the rain the bugs seemed to be getting in their deadly work, but now the plants look to be in excellent shape and the potatoes firm and hard. Good weather for a week or ten days and this crop will be in excellent shape. While the pastures are all gone and the farmers in many instances are feeding the same as they do in the winter time, still the hay crop has been excellent and the wild grass yet to cut is of such fine quality that the extra feeding will not be noticed. It would take a week of wet weather to make the pastures look like anything again and wet weather might injure other crops badly.

The Stock. Of course stock is not doing as well as it would on good pastures but they are in fairly good condition. Horses seem poor and in many cases the oats from last year were mostly chaff and they have not had the proper nourishment for the amount of work expected. Sheep will thrive on any kind of pasture and are looking in excellent shape.

Much Poultry. The average farmer's wife has gone into poultry this summer with redoubled energy. Flocks of ducks and turkeys and geese are to be found all over the county and chickens are thriving nicely. It has been ideal weather for poultry and the farmers have taken advantage of it.

MORE SCANDAL AT THE UNIVERSITY

Summer School Students Go on a Big Drunk and Frighten the Co-Eds.

Eight summer school students of the University of Wisconsin were suspended yesterday morning by the discipline committee of the faculty for participating in a drunken carousal. The committee absolutely refused to disclose the names of the students but it is understood that they are the sons of wealthy parents. The cause of their suspension is the direct result of a disgraceful scene enacted on a recent night. The "dread" bunch consumed several kegs of beer on the beautiful shores of Lake Monota, near the university, and in the wee small hours of the morning proceeded to a sorority house and broke in the door. The house at the time was occupied with librarians from all parts of the state who had gone to Madison to attend the summer school for librarians. The girls became frantic with fear as they recognized the intoxicated condition of the intruders. The police were called and succeeded in arresting one of the offenders but they were forced to let him go on account of the interference of his comrades. A student by the name of Rudolph Jaeger is said to have been the ringleader of the gang.

WISCONSIN CAN SECURE A COACH

Eastern Oarsman Says He Would Like To Develop a Winning Crew.

Coach Courtney, the greatest trainer of oarsmen in the east, who has made such an enviable record in bringing out winning crews at Ithaca, New York, for Cornell university, is dissatisfied with his situation at the eastern institution, has declared that with the material and facilities available at Madison he could "beat the spots off all the crews that row in the annual regatta at Ithaca" and would come west for a satisfactory salary, perhaps $1,000 a year or more. This is the story brought from New York by a prominent politician and official at Washington. The facts as stated are being circulated among leading wealthy Wisconsin alumni and it is hoped that the chance will develop into a wholesome change at Madison. The matter of salary is the greatest obstacle, however, for the Wisconsin athletic association is now some $12,000 in debt and the prospects are not such as to seem to warrant the hiring of so expensive a coach. Coach Andrew M. O'Dea, the present coach of the Wisconsin crews, receives $2,200 a year, part of which comes from the board of regents for services as assistant director of the gymnasium and instructor in athletics and the remainder from the athletic association for services as coach of the crews and trainer of the football men. Mr. O'Dea is known as a good coach, but some dissatisfaction is felt at the repeated defeats of the Badgers in the east, each year growing worse, and the sentiment in favor of a change is continually increasing.

Cures and Prevents Disease

The cause of ninety per cent of all disease is a faulty digestive and drainage system. The stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. One should never allow even a temporary stagnation of any one of these organs—they should be kept constantly in perfect working order.

Seven Barks has been on the American market for over thirty-five years. Its distributors have reams of high-praising letters from people in every walk of life. Thousands of families are never without a bottle. The oldest friends are our best.

Test it for Yourself Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle, and if it does not do what is claimed, take the empty or partly consumed bottle back and get your money. One New York City druggist sold 720 bottles on this basis before one dissatisfied purchaser asked for the return of his money.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, August 2, 1864.—Editors Gazette: Gentlemen—Please inform your readers and thus answer many inquiries, that although the names of those who furnished substitutes and paid commutation money under the November draft, still remain on the enrollment lists, now being published, yet they will be returned to the draft wheel, as all such are exempt for three years from the date of the draft. S. J. M. Putnam, Captain and Prov. Marshal 2d Wis. Vol.

A Good Move.—The business men of the city have agreed to close their stores on Thursday next (Fast day), and no business will be done. We are glad to hear that our merchants have decided to respect the president's wishes in this matter.

Amazons in the Federal Army.—The official records at Washington show that upwards of one hundred and fifty female recruits have been discovered since the commencement of the war. It is supposed that nearly all these Amazons were in conclusion with the men who were examined and accepted, after which the fair ones managed to substitute themselves and to be mustered into the service. Over seventy of these martial ladies when their sex was discovered, were acting officer's servants. In one regiment there were seventeen acting in this capacity.

The Hay Crop.—Pennsylvania papers say that the hay crop of that state, now mostly harvested, will be immense, and of the best quality. Farmers call it the best hay crop in their remembrance. The hay in Connecticut, the Hartford Courant says, is also immense and is of the very best quality, one ton being considered equal to two tons of last year's crop.

A regular meeting and drill of Water Wheel Engine Company No. 2, will be held on Thursday evening next. It is necessary that every member, and those intending to accompany us to Fond du Lac, should be present. By order, A. D. Stoddard, clerk.

STORK TIME

to most women is a term of anxiety, serious thought and sweet anticipation. With the cessation of pain necessary to childbirth, there comes calm nerves, sleep and recuperation.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

does diminish the pain accompanying maternity. With its aid mothers can and do bring healthy, sweet dispositioned and intelligent babies into the world.

Morning sickness, sore breasts and excruciating pains caused by the gradually expanding organs, are relieved by this penetrating and relaxing liniment. Among the manifold aids to childbirth Mother's Friend has grown in popularity and gained a prestige among rich women as well as poor; it is found and welcomed in the mansion as well as in the cabin.

By lessening the mother's agony of mind and diminishing pain a beautiful influence is wrought upon the child, and instead of peevish, ill-tempered and sickly forms you have healthy, laughing humanity, rendering a blessing ever to you and its country.

All Druggists sell Mother's Friend at $1.00. Write for our free book "Motherhood" THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

ACID THROWER SEEKS DEATH

Iowa Girl's Assaulting Tries to Commit Suicide in Jail.

Clarksville, Iowa, Aug. 2.—Hugh Wheeler, charged with throwing carbolic acid in the eyes and face of Cornelia Ramsey, attempted to commit suicide in the Allison jail. No cause is given for the heinous deed, which will probably render Miss Ramsey partially blind, besides disfiguring her for life. The acid was thrown at a late hour as the young woman was on her way home from a neighboring house. Her screams attracted the attention of friends, who ran to her assistance. Her assailant escaped in the darkness. Information leading to Wheeler's arrest was furnished by Miss Ramsey later and the young man was locked up.

JOE LEITER GETS INJUNCTION

Federal Court Grants Order Against Union Men at Zeigler.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 2.—Joseph Leiter's coal company has obtained an injunction from Judge Humphrey in the federal court prohibiting union miners from picketing or patrolling the premises of the company at Zeigler, Ill., entering upon the property, interfering with the men who wish to work threatening or persuading men to quit work and from interfering with or entering trains or cars going to and from Zeigler. The restraining order is in temporary and the case is set for hearing Sept. 15 in this city.

SUGAR PLANTS CONSOLIDATE

Cereal Company of Peoria Combines With Big Waukegan Concern.

Waukegan, Ill., Aug. 2.—The Cereal Sugar company of Peoria, formerly of St. Louis, has been consolidated with the Warner Sugar Refining company, and their plant at Peoria has been moved to this city, where it will form a department of the big Warner factory soon to start up after being rebuilt. The Cereal Sugar company makes a grape sugar. It was capitalized at $500,000. Its president is Dwight Tredway of St. Louis, who will conduct the department here.

TOLEDO ELEVATOR IS BURNED

Paddock Hodge Property Worth $200,000 Is Destroyed.

Toledo, O., Aug. 2.—The Michigan Central elevator, operated by the Paddock Hodge company, was destroyed by fire Monday evening at a loss of $200,000. The insurance on the building amounted to $189,000. The building contained 150,000 bushels of corn and 75,000 bushels of oats. In addition to this fifteen freight cars were destroyed in the fire. The fire started on the fifth floor, eighty-five feet above the earth, and the cause is unknown.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY

From the report of the committee on Credentials to the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, which was unanimously adopted by that convention, June 23, 1904.

Your committee report it to be their final judgment that the convention which elected John G. Spooner, J. V. Quarles, J. W. Babcock and Emil Baensch as delegates at large, and their alternates at large, to this convention from the state of Wisconsin WAS THE REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN WISCONSIN, and that the delegates elected by it are the regular elected delegates at large from the state of Wisconsin to the republican convention, and, as such, are entitled to seats in this convention.

WHAT WILL BE THE ISSUE?

Secretary Shaw, in his opening speech of the campaign, compared the records of the two parties in regard to financial questions such as the currency and the banks. He made, of course, an effective argument for the republican side. There is no doubt that the republican party has much the better record on these questions. It has at times wobbled badly, but it has always got steady on its feet and marched to the right point, while the democrats have nearly always contrived to get wrong and stay there. Even when the last democratic president used his full powers to prevent the country from suspending specie payments, his party deserted him. Even now, the party keeps silent on the question of the gold standard, and while its candidates for president and vice-president are now gold standard men, the former voted for Bryan in 1896, and the latter, as United States senator, voted against the resumption of specie payments.

But granting all this, does it follow that it will have much, if any, effect on this campaign? The people as a rule, do not concern themselves with more than one issue at a time. In 1896 and 1900 the issue was the gold standard, but is that likely to be the issue this year? If not, what then will be the issue? That has not as yet clearly developed. It may be the tariff. It may be the trusts. It may be simply Roosevelt vs. Parker—that is to say a contest between men rather than policies. We shall know more when the two candidates have written their letters of acceptance. Then the lines of battle will be drawn.

ENGLAND AGAINST RUSSIA.

It still looks as if Russia was maneuvering for a chance to back out gracefully from her war with Japan.

If such is the case, then the seizures by Russia of British merchantmen are developments toward peace rather than war.

There is much bad feeling between Russia and England. A leading Russian editor said recently that his country had a thousand different scores against England to be wiped out. Moreover, in seizing British vessels, Russia has touched England on her tenderest spot. She is especially inflammatory when her maritime interests are involved.

Nevertheless, war between Russia and England would appear to be unlikely. There are too many powerful influences operating against it.

But if there should be war there is no reason to believe that the United States would be involved; and as a neutral, this country would profit in many ways by the embarrassments of the other two great powers.

That the outbreak of war would inevitably lead to the withdrawal of considerable gold from the United States. We have much to spare, but the loss of gold to Europe at the same time that we were shipping currency to move the crops would bring to an end the present era of cheap money.

It is said two noted labor leaders have decided to start a poultry farm. Perhaps they have never heard hens go on a strike when the weather is cold.

After denouncing the men who nominated Parker in terms befitting train robbery, Mr. Bryan turns around and does their dirty work for them.

Carnegie does not believe in tips for his servants but he gives tips himself to the public and accepts tips where libraries would be acceptable.

When Great Britain has to go down into her jeans for a loan for her little ally, Japan, then she will realize what the war really means.

Vegetarians are not so plenty in Chicago from choice as people would believe. The strike has something to do with it.

The packers claim they are winning men from the ranks of the strikers day by day, and the strikers make like claims.

So Mr. Kempf is to be made to bear the burden of the administration's wrong doings even though he is on the La Follette ticket for re-election.

If it is the purpose of the voters to defeat Parker they should break the news gently to Grover so as not to bruise his sweet young heart.

According to careful observation seven men are running for the presidency. It is safe to say that but one of the seven will be elected.

President Roosevelt has a business motto that he applies, in a condensed form it is: "Let well enough alone."

Ellis Root does not want to be nominated for governor of New York despite his friend Roosevelt wants him to be.

Grandpa Davis takes a nap in the middle of each day. The notification committee will please take notice of this fact.

Colombia refuses to recognize Panama and the little republic is all swelled up with pride over the event.

Martial law has ended at Cripple Creek, but it will take Colorado years to get the bad taste out of its mouth.

Would anybody have ever thought that William Jennings would ever attempt the role of re-organizer?

Russia might put in the pleas that the sinking of neutral ships was merely for target practice.

The rain of Sunday morning did thousands of dollars worth of good to the growing crops.

Another Haymarket riot and Chicago would awake to the gravity of the situation.

It appears that Japan has a few hundred enemies nearer home than Manchuria.

That Vladivostok squadron is very mysterious and very adept at making surprises.

President Roosevelt at work is really a vacation for our strenuous president.

The price of beefsteaks in Chicago has gone up along with the strike.

Judge Parker is still engaged in preparing his speech of acceptance.

Colombia wishes to officially announce that Uncle Sam is real mean.

Automobilists are asking questions as to whys and wherefores.

After thirty years in business a man is entitled to a rest.

Russia might be more humane and then note the results.

PRESS COMMENT

Superior Telegram: There is one thing about the moon that some men would do well to imitate. It never tries to get full when it has come to its last quarter.

Oshkosh Northwestern: One of the latest claims is to the effect that kissing will remove freckles. There's nothing like trying it, anyway.

Chicago Record-Herald: General Jimenez is reported to have returned to Santo Domingo. If this is so it will be necessary to keep the Santo Domingo telegraph office open at night again.

El Paso Herald: After St. Louis gets through with them, a myriad other cities clamor for the society of those ignorant dog-banqueters as permanent residents.

Chicago Chronicle: Mr. Bryan is a shrew. He scolds and scolds and scolds. If he did not make money by the operation he would have to go to work.

Chicago Tribune: Colombia, having monkeyed with a buzz saw and lost a leg, now makes faces at the surgeon and refuses to acknowledge that the leg is gone.

Eau Claire Leader: Now that meat is likely to jump over the moon, we should begin to read up the merits of the egg plant, the vegetable oyster, and the cow pea.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: Russia has apologized, promised to pay and withdrawn her volunteer fleet. Russia is never to be watched so closely as when she is promising to be good.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: Mr. Bryan made an address at DeFavan Wednesday night, and said never a word about campaign issues. Here is an example which one of his Wisconsin friends, who is also in the habit of doing the Chautauqua stunt, might follow to advantage.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Chicago packing house strikers who want President Roosevelt to interfere should reflect that the president acts for all the people, and that the public can do without beef in summer much easier than it can do without coal in winter.

Neenah Times: And now the Wisconsin State Fair association is touching the country newspapers for free advertising. As a matter of fact the Times mentions that the fair is to be held September 5 to 10. If there are any Pike dogs or the like, its advertising rates are subject to call.

Racine Journal: Iowa lawyers will urge in the next legislature a law providing municipal governments shall consist of a board of but three men, who must give their entire time to the city. All councils and mayors will be abolished.

Kansas City Star: "Roosevelt and Fairbanks" is easy for the Macon Republican's poet. He says: "Rhyme? Well, we should say 'yes.' Roosevelt and Fairbanks on a platform of square blanks will stir up and scare cranks, and in a pinch we might work in something about rare pranks and bare shanks."

Green Bay Gazette: This bluff of the governor that the railroads owe Wisconsin $1,000,000 in back taxes and that he is going to institute suit to recover, looks very much like a grand stand play, coming as it does just at the opening of the campaign. At another time it would look much better on his part.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Parker himself, according to his own confession, voted against the gold standard in 1896 and 1900, for he supported Bryan in both those years. His party opposed the financial act of March, 1900, which put the gold standard in the statutes. If Parker had been in congress at the time he undoubtedly would have voted against the statute. If elected now he could not be relied on to enforce it.

La Crosse Leader-Press: The government has begun the distribution of about 2,500 homesteads on the Rosebud reservation, the first drawing being held this week. More than 100,000 people want the homesteads. Less than one in 40 will get them. The land on the reservation is estimated to be worth not more than $15 per acre on an average, the whole 2,500 homesteads thus amounting in value to $37,500,000. Estimating that each homesteader spent $50 in railroad fare to and from the several South Dakota land offices, and in expenses there, a modest calculation when it is considered that hotel and liquor prices went killing while the crowd filled the towns where the registration took place, in that case the homesteakers spent $5,000,000 during the preliminaries. Those who draw homesteads, moreover, must pay $1 an acre for the quarter-sections allotted to them, the whole coming to $1,500,000. Thus in all about $5,000,000 was or must be paid for land worth $37,500,000. The country lost money on the opening of the Rosebud reservation.

STEALS THAT HE MAY MARRY

Charges Against Indiana Man Reveal a Romantic Story.

La Porte, Ind., Aug. 2.—Charles F. Foster, son of Edward Foster of this county, is in the Allen county jail, charged with larceny. The crime has its chapter of romance. Foster was engaged to the daughter of a wealthy farmer, she prepared her trousseau, the minister was engaged and the guests gathered for the ceremony, but the groom failed to appear. It developed that Foster was without money. Then came the chapter of crime. Foster planned and executed several robberies, as he now confesses, for the purpose of obtaining money that the wedding festivities might proceed. The state declares that the evidence is sufficient to send Foster to the penitentiary.

Well Answered.

"What's that you have in your hand, Henry?" asked Mrs. Pry, as he brought home a roll of manuscript. "Brains, my dear," replied Mr. Pry, pompously. "Are you surprised at the fact?" "Not in the least," she retorted; "I knew you didn't carry them in your hand."

Rings Returned, but Fess Never.

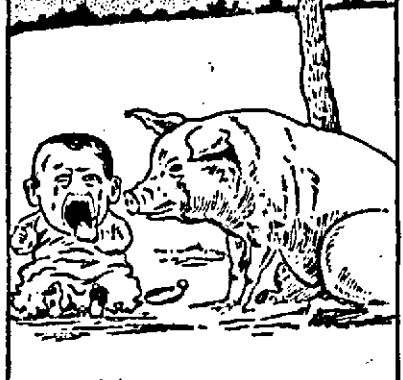

"Some girls are addicted to the habit of returning their engagement rings after the break," remarked the Observer of Events and Things, "but no minister that we ever heard of thought for a minute of giving back the marriage fee."

An Animal Story For Little Folks

A Pig Tale

Tommy Toddle's mamma was busy; that is why Tommy was sitting under the tree. Tommy was greedy and had just got his second bottle of milk and was yelling for more; that is why his mouth was so wide open and the tears running down his cheeks.

Some one had left the gate open, and that is why Mr. Hog appeared upon the scene. So busy was Tommy with his yelling that he did not see Mr. Hog.

THEN HE CRIED ALL THE HARDER.

until, with his nose close to Tommy's ear, he grunted "Ugh, ugh, ugh!" Then he cried all the harder.

"What's the use of crying, little boy?" he said. "I never do—grunting's easier."

Tommy stopped short and started. "Do you know what you are liable to become," continued the hog, "if you keep up your greedy habits?"

"No; what?" asked Tommy, getting more used to his new friend.

"What is a little pig doing when he is eating too much?" said the pig, with a queer wink.

"Don't know," said Tommy.

"Making a hog of himself," grunted the pig.

"Do you think I'll get to be a hog too?" whined Tommy, for he was a least bit scared.

"I know it," continued his friend. "Why, I have known hundreds of little boys and girls that began by being pigs and grew to be hogs."

"How dreadful!" said Tommy. "And what can I do about it?"

"Let me have your milk bottle, and then you'll grow to be a big boy, and then perhaps a man," said the pig, taking the bottle and drinking it dry.

Tommy looked at him sadly, for he wanted the milk.

"How about you?" he asked.

"Me?" said the pig. "Oh, don't worry about me. I shall always be a hog. Good day."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Almost Convinced.

"Do you believe in telepathy?" "Well, this morning a man paid me a hundred dollars he owed me, and this afternoon I got a letter from my wife asking for a hundred."—Life.

Up-to-Date Bricks. Bricks are now being made of clean sand and ground quicklime that are said to be as substantial as granite. They cost $2.50 a thousand. MORE SIDEWALK WOES IN CITY

MARY A. KEATING SERVES NOTICE OF INJURY ON CLERK.

A HOLE AS BIG AS A DISHPAN

Alleged to Exist in Tar Walk on South River Street, Near Jewelry Store.

Bernard M. Palmer, representing Mary A. Keating, has filed a notice of injury with the city clerk in which the city of Janesville is reminded that it is to be held responsible for all damages occasioned by reason of an injury received by the client on an alleged defective sidewalk on South River street. It is alleged in the notice that an oblong hole in the tar sidewalk near Hall & Sayles jewelry store, five inches deep and 20 by 11 inches in dimensions, was responsible for the fall.

ELIZABETH DUTHRIE DIES OF DIPHTHERIA

Last Evening at the Home of Her Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duthrie After Two Weeks' Illness.

In the still hours of last night, about twelve o'clock, Miss Elizabeth Duthrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Duthrie, 25 Milwaukee avenue, passed on from the home that had sheltered her for many years, to the better one awaiting her beyond. During the past two weeks she has been seriously ill with that dread disease diphtheria, and all that could be done by the kind and loving parents, with the aid of physicians and neighbors, proved to be of no avail. Hers was a most beautiful life, loving and dutiful to nature. She drew to herself the tenderest affections of her parents and all who were associated with her, and such a soul found it not hard to respond to the love of her Father in heaven. There is only one recompense given to the bereaved father, mother and family, and that is the knowledge that weakness has been exchanged for strength; that her hopes have found their fruition, and the beautiful life loaned them for a time will develop into a strength and beauty not given to earth. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss a father, mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Duthrie; two brothers, Edward and William Duthrie, and one sister, Mrs. Boynton of Clinton. Owing to the nature of the disease private funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. T. Henderson at the cemetery in Johnston town this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

GALBRAITH HAS A LARGE EXHIBIT

Janesville Firm Has Many Horses at the Great Canadian Fair This Week.

Alex. Galbraith & Son are exhibiting part of their stock at the great Dominion of Canada fair, now being held at Winnipeg, which continues for two weeks. As usual Messrs. Galbraith have won a large number of the principal prizes against very strong competition, there being over 500 horses competing in the various classes. Their principal winnings include first prize and champion gold medal valued at $100, for the imported English Shire stallion, Rockingham; first, second and fourth prizes for three year old Clydesdale stallions; first and second prizes for Percherons; first for Coach stallions, and first and third in pony class. Out of a total of twelve animals shown no fewer than eleven have won premiums. No other firm or individual exhibiting has been anywhere near so successful as the Messrs. Galbraith. This goes to show the high character of the stock this firm handles.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES

Underwent Operation: County Clerk Frank P. Starr was operated upon this morning by Drs. St. John and Gibson is reported to be getting along as well as could be expected.

Fine and Sentence: "Prof." W. J. McArthur's oratory in his own behalf availed him nothing in municipal court yesterday. Judge Fifield found him guilty of assault and battery and sentenced him to ten days in jail and a fine of $10 or fifteen additional days.

The former member of the Carpet Sweeper Refracting Co. paid the fine and the "professor" was taken to the county jail where he will enjoy Sheriff Appleby's hospitality for the coming fortnight.

KEMPF TO STICK ON THE TICKET

He Will Not Desert the La Follette Ticket Although Asked To.

State Treasurer John T. Kempf will not retire from the La Follette state ticket because of the exposure last week of a discrepancy of $3,400 between the state land receipts as recorded in the state treasury and the land office. It is said, however, that he will drop every La Follette employee in his office as soon as he has secured and filed his additional bond of $350,000, required by the government. The state treasurer attributes his trouble to the hostility of the La Follette men, who turned against him because he refused to discharge two clerks. It has been known for a month that there was a discrepancy, and the state treasurer was ready to settle it, but he says he was not able to get the land commissioners together to find out just what the difference amounted to.

W. T. Duke of Milwaukee, one of the clerks objected to by the La Follette men, tendered his resignation a month ago in order to devote his entire time to his private affairs and to his campaign for the assembly from his district.

The La Follette employees who will be asked to resign, it is said, are Assistant State Treasurer Thomas M. Purcell of Cumberland, bookkeeper Thomas Herold of Blair, bookkeeper Arthur Pugh of Racine, mailing clerk Joseph Shethurst of Seneca and Special Clerk E. J. Vanderboom of Marinette. The salaries of the positions range from $900 to $2,000.

LAUGHABLE TALK BY THE FREE PRESS

Tries to Bolster Up Its Claims by Attacking Gentlemen at Madison Convention.

Bitter attacks have been made by the Free Press since the Milwaukee Sentinel published the affidavit of Henry C. Baker, the chief of police of Madison, regarding the handling of the delegates at the state convention at Madison on May 18th. Among other things it prints the following at the end of a so-called affidavit of Sheriff McWatty of Dane county published yesterday. The railroad detective mentioned is Patrick Henry Casey, the well-known St. Paul road detective. Mr. Casey is well-known in Janesville and his friends here are much amused at his being likened to the mountaineers who came to murder Goebel in the Kentucky election a few years ago. Among the other so-called desperadoes who were quartered at the police station at Madison during the convention was a prominent Janesville man and several Rock county delegates. These are the class of men called desperadoes. The clipping is as follows:

It is now common talk in Madison that Baker housed railroad detectives and other equally good stalwarts at the police station during the entire convention. He stated to Attorney Gilbert at one time during the convention period that he had turned his headquarters over to visitors. These people, it is supposed, like the mountaineers when the Goebel murder occurred in Kentucky, were brought to the capital to carry the convention when the proper time came. That time, however, fortunately, never came.

THE HEAVENS FOR ALL OF AUGUST

Mercury and Venus Are Now the Evening Stars—Fixed Stars Visible.

In olden times mariners made their calculations entirely by the stars and foretold the weather by the appearance of the heavens. Many of the early settlers in Janesville enjoyed star gazing and not a few of the pioneers of this country knew the different astronomical features of each month of the year as they came around. Those who may be interested in the aspect of the heavens during August, the following table is compiled:

Mercury and Venus are now evening stars. The former reaches eastern elongation August 19 and may be seen in the evening twilight a little south of west the latter part of the month. Venus is setting higher above the sun and sets about half an hour later than the sun but is not yet conspicuous as the evening star. Jupiter and Saturn also appear in the evening sky. The latter reaches the meridian, rather low in the southern sky, near midnight; the former, far more brilliant, rises late in the evening but is more conspicuous in the early morning hours as it ascends the eastern sky. Mars, the red colored planet, may be seen rising above the northeastern horizon about two hours before the sun.

The times of sunrise and sunset for the months are as follows:

Sunrise—August 1, 4:48 a. m.; August 11, 4:58 a. m.; August 21, 5:09 a. m.; August 31, 5:20 a. m. Sunset—7:19 p. m.; 7:06 p. m.; 6:51 p. m.; 6:25 p. m.

The times of the moon's phases are: Last quarter, Aug. 4, 5:03; new moon, Aug. 11, 6:58; first quarter, Aug. 17, 10:27; full moon, Aug. 25, 7:02.

The principal fixed stars visible during the month in the evening hours are:

To the west: Arcturus and Antares. Near the meridian, Vega. To the east, Altair.

BIG THRESHER OUTFIT

Col. Wixom Starts Mammoth Engine and Separator.

The largest steam thrasher outfit in the county was started today by Col. C. E. Wixom who has just purchased a 20 horse power double cylinder engine and separator of the Reeves make, from D. M. Barless. Col. Wixom expects to take the outfit to Dakota later in the season.

Origin of Spats.

Where did spats come from? Highland soldiers wore them first. Because of the bravery of highlanders at Lucknow and elsewhere in India during the Indian mutiny the people of England looked about for some way to show their admiration. Scrutiny of the highland dress disclosed that spats were the most suitable for adoption, so they were adopted and have been commonly worn ever since.

Marriages in United States.

Of the marriages in general in the United States it is discovered that out of the 1,000 considered 139 men will have been married at least once before the celebration under consideration, while the 861 will have made vows for the first time. Of the 1,000 women in the case only ninety-eight will have worn widow's weeds before the wedding. Thus, out of the 2,000 individuals, parties to the 1,000 marriage, 237 will have bought or have worn widow's rings before.

THE TWO VOCATIONS! CANNOT BE MERGED

Fire-Chief Claims That Duties of Dog-Catcher Are Antipodal to Those of a Fireman.

While no one expected that the pathway of Official Dog Catcher Philip Marske would be lined with primroses, it was scarcely to be anticipated that grave complications would set in before he had even started out on the joyful round of his varied duties. While he was engaged yesterday morning altering the gorgeous circus cage which is to serve as a wheeled prison for the untamed, the almost oppressive silence of the summer day was broken by the wild clamor of the firebell, summoning all call men to their obvious and manifest duties. Mr. Marske is a call man. Perhaps his thoughts were far away with the yelping, barking, howling which he was to reap next Tuesday morning. At any rate, if he heard he did not heed. His absence was immediately noted by Fire Chief Klein and after the holocaust on North Hickory street had been subdued the latter immediately sought out the remiss one. Without any prelude he entered upon the theme uppermost in his mind—the inherent incongruity existing between dog-catching and fire-fighting. He pictured his hearer dragging his captive canines behind the hose-cart on a sudden alarm and so persuasive did he become that Mr. Marske weakened and made a tentative offer to give up the dog catching appointment and retire to private life. It is to be hoped, however, that this is not his final determination.

FAREWELL TO OLD GREETING TO NEW

Retiring Proprietor and New Owner of Lowell Hardware Co., and Employees Dined at Myers Last Night.

All of the employees of the Lowell Hardware Company assembled at the New Myers hotel last evening for an informal spread and talk with William A. Leonard, the new proprietor. Short addresses were made by the retiring manager, E. W. Lowell, the new owner, and the men who have contributed to the success of the establishment. The sincere regard entertained for Mr. Lowell by all who were in his retirement were demonstrated in the farewell words addressed to him.

Tennis And Golf Gossip

May Sutton, the New Women's Champion Racket Wielder --- Her Style of Play --- Willie Anderson, the Open Golf Champion of America.

May Sutton of Pasadena, Cal., who recently won the women's tennis championship of America, is one of the most capable all around athletes that the feminine world ever produced.

Miss Sutton, strangely enough, is but seventeen years old, and yet she captured the championship by defeating women ten years her senior and a great deal more experienced. She is also a fine swimmer, an unusually effective golfer and a tireless walker.

The general comment about Miss Sutton's play is, "If she plays so well now, what will she do with two or three years' more practice?" She belongs to a tennis family. Her older sisters have been famous on the Pacific coast for their tennis. Championships have fallen easily into the Sutton family. But this youngest girl has defeated her own champion sisters, winning the Pacific coast laurels, and now she takes back to her home national championship honors from the tournadrives are accurate and exceptionally well placed.

But the women tennis players were not the only ones to feel Miss Sutton's prowess at Philadelphia. Many men who have won not a few championships, local, state and sectional, tried a few games with the western girl and were defeated.

There were many who thought that the steadiness for which Bessie Moore, the former champion, is noted might gradually wear down the Californian and enable the New Yorker to retain her championship, but it was not to be, for, as in the other matches, Miss Sutton gained a pronounced lead at the start, and, continuing her powerful drives throughout the two sets, soon had Miss Moore chasing to all corners of her side of the court in a desperate attempt to return the ball over the net. Gaine after game went to the western girl, and the only credit to which Miss Moore could lay claim at the end was the fact that she won one more game than any of the others who had opposed the new phenomenon.

Willie Anderson of the Apawamis (N. Y.) Golf club is hailed these days as the king of professional golfers. His recent victory in the open tournament at Glen View, near Chicago, gives him the distinction of having won the national event three times. On the two previous occasions he won after ties with Alex Smith at the Myopia (Mass.) Hunt club and with David Brown last year at Baltusrol, Morristown, N. J. This time he can read his title clear, as he had a clean margin of five strokes over Gilbert Nichols of St. Louis, his nearest opponent. As he had annexed the western open championship at Grand Rapids a week before, he is now monarch of all he surveys. His previous win of the western title was at Cleveland in 1902, when he won with a score of 290, figures which have never been beaten in this country. Anderson's recent performance stamp the way to the St. Louis fair, and made a protest and refused to hold up his hands. One of the robbers reached for the fire ax and hit him a severe blow with it, but did not do him any serious injury.

A few steps further along a passenger had already gone to bed and did not want to be disturbed. One shot was fired under his berth and he was cut in an instant.

This was the only shot fired during the time the robbers were on the train.

Railway Official Loses $100.
Among the passengers on the train was E. H. Gross, superintendent of telegraph of the Illinois Central. He lost $100 in money, and says a man near him was relieved of $300 he had in a bag tied around his neck.

According to the statement of Mr. Gross the men were evidently novices in the business, and were almost as badly scared as the passengers. The leader was under 30 years of age and wore a light suit of clothes and had no mask.

The others were roughly dressed and had red bandanna handkerchiefs tied over their faces. All carried heavy blue steel navy revolvers.

The bandits took everything they believed might be of value, including railroad tickets, jewelry, paper of all sorts, but they were especially keen for money.

The whole thing was over in a short time, as the robbers were in a great hurry and wanted to have the affair over with as quickly as possible.

There were about thirty women on the train and the majority of the passengers were of a well-to-do class, many of them wearing costly jewelry.

ROBERT E. PATTISON DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Democrat Who Was Twice Governor of Pennsylvania Expires at His Home Near Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 2.—Robert E. Pattison, who was twice Democratic governor of Pennsylvania and twice comptroller of Philadelphia, died early Monday at his home in Overbrook, a suburb of this city. Pneumonia, complicated with a weakness of the heart, was the cause of death. He was 52 years old.

Mr. Pattison was a candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket against Gov. Pennypacker in 1902 and had not been a well man since his laborious campaign in that year, when his tour of seven weeks covered nearly every county in the state. He was a member of the committee of resolutions of the recent Democratic convention at St. Louis and his health failed under the strain. He remained in St. Louis a few days after the convention to rest, and, returning home, resumed his business, dividing his time between this city and New York.

Last Friday pneumonia developed and heart complications aggravated Mr. Pattison's illness. Sunday his condition was encouraging, but late Sunday night he collapsed. Saline injections were resorted to, but the patient sank rapidly and died shortly after 5 o'clock Monday morning.

Jersey's Mild Police Court.
The police court of St. Heller, the principal town of Jersey, England, is remarkable in several respects. First, the proceedings are always opened with prayer, second, it frequently happens that after prayers there is no more business, and every one goes home. There is so little crime committed in the island that the police force (twenty strong), is kept up only for visitors.

Work and Prayer.
Praying for things and working for them brings results. Work brings results which are at least satisfactory, for prayer may be answered in a way that is unexpected.

Man Should Be Vegetarian.
Man's structure, compared with that of other animals, indicates that fruits and excellent vegetables are his natural food. The man-like apes live exclusively upon fruits, nuts and green leaves.

Walter J. Travis, amateur golf champion of America and Great Britain, who recently returned from his victorious trip abroad, brought with him the usual amount of impressions of foreign links and golfers. Probably the most interesting of many things he said was the following:

"All things considered, the golfer whom I most admired as a player was Horace Hutchinson. Over here we have read so many of his books and spoken of him so long as a veteran that one is surprised to find he is only forty-seven years old. He plays every shot for what it is worth and in perfect style, as free as any supple youth, and, all told, I pronounce him, to my mind, the ideal golfer. There is absolutely no green in America to remotely suggest Sandwich. It, with other noted seaside links of Great Britain, is incomparable. Under such fine conditions there is little excuse for poor putting. But our best links are, if anything, better than the inland courses of Britain."

Dean Stanley's Impression.
Dean Stanley of Westminster wore home from his first visit to America an expression of amazement which only time could efface. He was at once beset by interviewers, who asked the usual questions. "What was the thing which most impressed you in America?" was one of these. Without a moment's hesitation, Dean Stanley replied: "My own ignorance."

DON'T LOOK FOR EASY WORK

An Englishman in India once owned an elephant whom, in honor of the wife of the viceroys, he called Lady Curzon.

Lady was employed in plowing the fields with four plows attached and in loading lumber on the trains. Lady was rather lazy, I am sorry to say, and was continually looking for an easier task. One day she heard her owner's wife say that she did not want a good nurse for the baby.

So one day the mother kissed baby, and when, after some moments of hunting, they found her Lady had her in her care, holding her between her great front feet and fanning her with her ears. "I've found my nurse!" cried the mother.

So Lady was made to wear a great white apron and a cap that wouldn't stay on and carried that little tyrant of a baby about on a cushion. Her legs ached and her back ached.

"Oh, my," she sighed, "why did I ever trade work? This baby nursing, I guess, is not in my line. I can't sleep at night because that wretched infant cries. I can't rest by day because the little tyrant wants to walk. I thought the thing was easy. I believe it would kill an elephant in time."

One day, utterly discouraged, she brought in the baby to his mother.

"Take him, take him," she pleaded, "and let me do general housework."

All of which shows that some things that seem easy are not as easy as they seem.—Detroit Journal.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

Mary's Little Lamb

Of course you all remember about the dear little schoolgirl whose mother was not well "up" on names and so called her little daughter just plain Mary and who had the little white, woolly lamb that seemed to insist on going everywhere Mary chose to go?

And how one day, when the lamb wandered into the village school and raised such a fuss that there was pretty sure to be a vacation if things continued, the schoolmaster arrived with a baseball bat and gently requested his visitor to "Shoo?"

But you never heard what that lamb said to himself as he went limping into the pond he went, head first, down the road, nursing the spot where the bat hit him. It was something like this:

"You just wait, you mean old thing! I shan't always be such a little, helpless thing. Mother says my horns will grow some day, and I shall be a fine ram and can bat with my head. Then I'll watch for you and get even."

And of course, as the days went by, Mary's little lamb became Mary's powerful ram.

Each day the schoolmaster would walk down the road, carrying his lunch box, and each day Mr. Ram would say to the little lambskin: "See him! He's the fellow I told you all about; mean as dirt. I just wish he'd come over in this lot just a little minute-only."

Then one day the schoolmaster was collecting flowers for the botany class and spied some iris growing at the edge of the fence and began to pick the purple flowers. Mary's ram saw him. "Watch me!" he cried to the admiring lambskin. Putting his head between his feet, he started toward the master with an automobile speed. The master did not see him.

"Bang!" they came together. Over the fence went the master, and into the pond he went, head first.

The master rose, dripping and seared. "Excuse me," said the ram. "Teachers often need to be taught. Good morning!"—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Bronchitis is the most fatal disease in England, next consumption, and then heart disease, pneumonia and scarlatina.

Cheerfulness and Grumbling.
How many people in real life there are who are a perpetual drain on the sympathies of their more cheerful friends and neighbors! They like to be comforted with strong, uplifting words; they appreciate cheerfulness—in others. It does not occur to them that it is a cultivable quality, just as grumbling is.

Peat Supply of Sweden.
Sweden's supply of peat seems inexhaustible. In the province of Norrbotten alone there are 8,648,000 acres of moss land, and the total quantity of peat is estimated to equal a supply for two centuries of the present coal import to Sweden.

Stamps Not Historically Correct.
On some of the postage stamps of St. Kitts-Nevis, England, the authorities have depicted Columbus gazing intently through a big telescope. As a matter of fact, telescopes were not invented till over 100 years after Columbus was born.

COCAINE FIEND KILLS AND INJURES IN FIGHT

Victim of Seductive Drug Commits Murder and Wounds Chief of Police at Nebraska City.

Nebraska City, Neb., Aug. 2.—Under the influence of cocaine Monday night Jack Carr, a carpenter, shot and killed Chris Hartman, wounded Chief of Police Schoonover, and was himself mortally wounded by officers before he was captured. Hartman was shot without provocation or warning, after which Carr took refuge in a room in a hotel.

When the police tried the door of the room Carr opened fire through the door with a shotgun, and afterward rushed into the street, firing into the crowd, when he was shot and fatally wounded.

Officer Ingram was shot in the back and eight citizens received flesh wounds.
